

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

I see a maple leaf on the ground.
The maple leaf is red and orange.
It falls from the tree when the wind blows. I pick up the maple leaf and keep it in my book.

- What do you see on the ground?

I see a _____.

- What colors is the maple leaf?

It is _____ and _____.

- Where does the maple leaf fall from?

It falls from the _____.

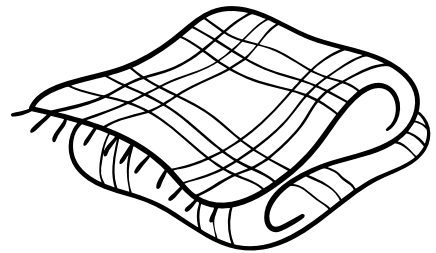

- What do you do with the maple leaf?

I keep it in my _____.

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

I wear my scarf when it gets cold.
The scarf is soft and warm.
My mom wraps the scarf around my neck. It keeps me cozy on windy fall days.

- When do you wear your scarf?

When it gets _____.

- Who wraps the scarf around your neck?

My _____ wraps it.

- How does the scarf feel?

It feels _____ and _____.

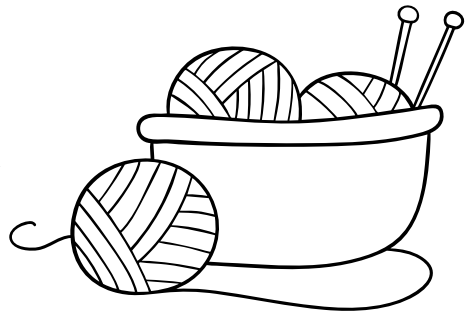

- What does the scarf do?

It keeps me _____.

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

This sweater is made of wool.
The wool comes from a sheep.
It keeps me warm when I go outside. I love my soft, brown wool sweater.

- What is the sweater made of?

It is made of _____.

- Where does wool come from?

It comes from a _____.

- When do you wear your wool sweater?

When you go _____.

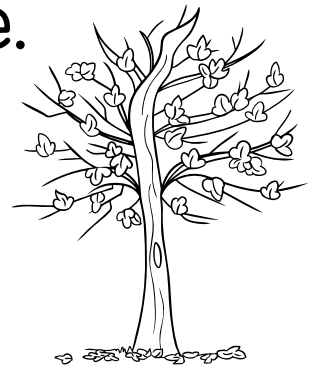

- What color is the wool sweater?

It is _____ and soft.

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

The tree stands tall in the park.
The leaves on the tree change colors in fall. Red, yellow, and orange leaves fall down. I jump in the pile under the tree.

- Where is the tree?

I see a _____.

- What happens to the leaves in fall?

They change _____.

- What colors are the leaves?

_____, _____ and _____.

- What do you do under the tree?

I _____ in the pile.

LET'S MAKE STICKERS!

