

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

I see a gift under the tree.
The gift has shiny red paper.
I shake the gift, and it makes a sound. I can't wait to open the gift on Christmas morning!

- What do you see under the tree?

I see a _____.

- What color is the gift?

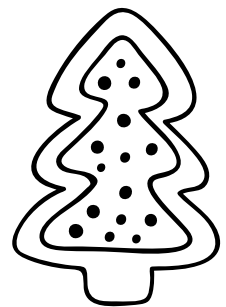

It is _____ and shiny.

- What happens when you shake the gift?

It makes a _____.

- When will you open the gift?

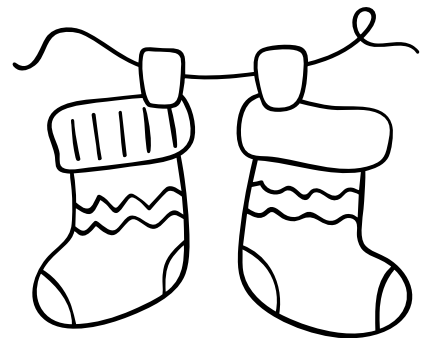

On _____ morning.

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

I have new socks for Christmas.
The socks are red and green.
I hang the socks by the fireplace.
Maybe Santa will fill the socks with candy!

- What color are the socks?

They are _____ and _____.

- Where do you hang the socks?

By the _____.

- Who might fill the socks?

_____ might fill them.

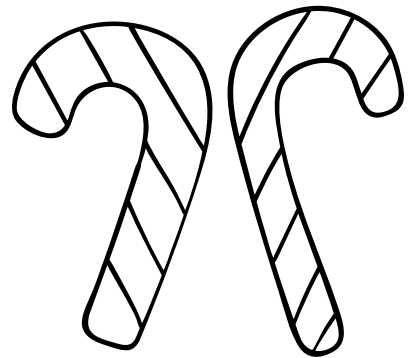

- What might Santa put in the socks?

He might put _____ in them.

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

There is candy on the table.
The candy is sweet and striped.
I put a piece of candy on the Christmas tree. It looks like a red and white cane!

- Where is the candy?

It is on the _____.

- What colors are the candy?

_____ and _____.

- What do you do with the candy?

I put it on the _____.

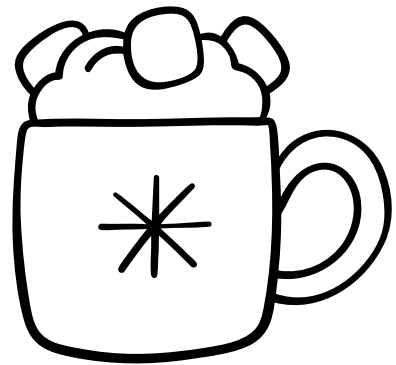

- What shape does the candy look like?

It looks like a _____.

READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the story three times. Answer the questions

I drink hot chocolate on a cold night. The hot chocolate is warm and sweet. I add marshmallows to my hot chocolate. It makes me feel cozy by the fire.

- When do you drink hot chocolate?

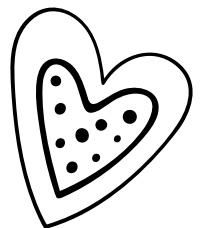

On a _____ night.

- What do you add to the hot chocolate?

I add _____.

- How does the hot chocolate taste?

It tastes _____ and _____.

- How does the hot chocolate make you feel?

It makes me feel _____.

LET'S MAKE STICKERS!

